DEDICATION

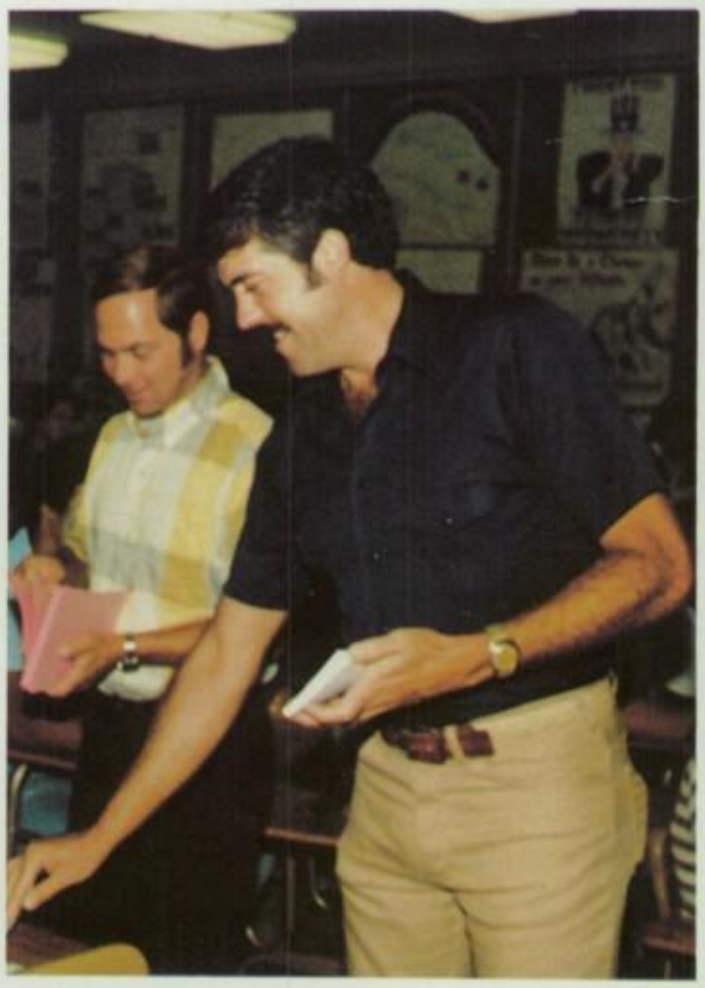
If you were to see a passenger sitting in a car with fright written all over his face, who would that man be?
If you were to see a man "kissing" a dummy, who would you think that man was?
If you were to see a man throwing a tantrum in the middle of a basketball game and throwing his white towel down at the referee, who would you guess he was?

The passenger in the car is a petrified Driver's Ed. teacher as he tries to instruct his sophomore class on how to stay on the right side of the road.
The kisser is only a Health teacher practicing CPR on a mannequin in front of his Health class.
The raving man at the basketball game is a coach disagreeing with a ref.

Just about every student who has attended Branham High School will know or remember this man. Not only has he contributed so much in the classroom, but his out-going personality and friendly smile has been a friend to many.

On the court and in the classroom he has used his own special style of working with students these past twelve years. It has never been said that there has ever been a dull moment when Mr. Roger Smith is around.

It is with great pleasure that we, the Ursa Maior staff, dedicate this edition of the yearbook to teacher, coach, and friend: Mr. Roger Smith.



Mr. Roger Smith

Ursa Maior Staff

Miss Karen Wagner - Yearbook Advisor

For several years Miss Karen Wagner has been the advisor of Branham's yearbook. Not many people are aware of how much time and effort it takes to start with an inexperienced staff and guide them step by step to the finished product. This year Miss Wagner had extra complications when she had to have surgery in the midst of yearbook deadlines. The deadlines were still met on time as she advised us from her bed during her recuperation. Many late hours were spent this year on the floors of Miss Wagner's home as we worked on the extensive introduction section and on other areas of the book. It has indeed been my pleasure to have Miss Wagner as an advisor. Her endless hours of help have added greatly to the quality of this book, and I would personally like to thank her now for being an advisor, teacher and friend to all of us on the Ursa Maior Staff . . . Pam Oas

Steve Meyers - Yearbook Staff Artist

Hours of work have gone into numerous art projects for Branham High School. Who's responsible? Steve Meyers. I'd like to give recognition to a very talented young man who has contributed excellent work to our yearbook. Steve's talent has been seen also on posters, program covers, advertising, and has many awards to his credit. Good Luck to Steve; we will miss him.

K. Wagner, Advisor

Pamela Oas - Yearbook Editor

What's an Ursa Maior? It's a yearbook put together with good leadership, a hard working staff, and lots and lots of long hours. Pamela Oas has successfully provided this leadership as editor. She's responsible for organizing what can be a tedious job into fun, and has produced a very fine yearbook. My thanks to her and the entire staff for a job well done!

My Very Dearest Michael,

I have so much to say, but as you know I sometimes have trouble putting my words on paper. I will start out by saying I love you very much - you already know that but I'll tell you anyway. So there! Secondly I will thank you very much for making my life more bearable. I don't know if I would have made it if it wasn't for you. Thank-you Sweetheart. The only thing that shadows my future is moving away from the man I love. But like you said we'll make it.

I love you, I'm proud of you and I always will. I want so much to help you with all of your problems you know I do, & I also want to solve our petty little problems; we have to. And besides I want a little boy with curly red hair. Hint, Hint - Boy, do I love you, you are the most important thing in my life. I can't believe the feelings I have for you. I can't believe that God has blessed us and given us each other. Ours is so much more than an average teenage love affair, but you already know that. But ~~my~~ maybe we can work it out and perhaps one day we will have a cute little boy with curly red hair, & dwelling. But anyways you know, all the normal stuff - I love you, your sexy, I want you body, when are you taking me out & I can't wait but not too! ... Where's my diamond ring? (Ha, Ha, Ha)

Baby I love you
your Endless love,
Laurie.

P.S. This year has been absolutely fantastic especially these last 1½ month. Who would have thought last year when I signed your year-book that the next year I'd be signing it as your girlfriend. Here's how I'd sign it if I wasn't your girl:

Howdy Mike,

Well this years been great. I'm glad we got to be such good friends. I think your a super person and I think you deserve the best of everything you do. I would say that we'll have to get together this summer but as you know I'm moving. I'll really miss you.

Bye
Love
Laurie "83"
